

Quality Safety Security Health and Environmental Policy

Prima Marine Public Company Limited

January 2021

Quality Safety Security Health and Environmental Policy

Prima Marine Public Company Limited commits itself to provide marine logistics and integrated offshore services with quality, safety, security, health, and environment (QSSHE) as guideline for strengthening operational performance and quality service. The company has formulated the QSSHE policy as followings

1. Comply with relevant law, regulation, customer requirement invoked with quality management, safety, security, health, and environment by concerning the customer requirements and needs and expectations of interested parties
2. Encourage continuous improvement and development of procedure conforming to law and regulation, innovation and technology, environmental situation, and current significant social issue
3. Promote safety, security, health, and environmental activity in workplace
4. Ensure loss and danger from incident are protected and well maintained by using risk-based decision making for emergency response and advocate the safety culture
5. Continual protect environmental pollution as ballast water management, waste generation and management, and energy-efficient management

This policy applies to all Prima Marine's businesses group and external provider. The executive management is responsible for policy implementation and policy conformity. All staff shall acknowledge, adopt, and apply the QSSHE policy to their own work activity and communicate the policy to the interested parties.

Effective date 22nd January 2021

Mr. Bowon Vongsinudom

Chairman

Prima Marine Public Company Limited